

1 Homework

Write a C program which calculates the multiplication of two given matrices. Program can also

- ask the dimensions of the input matrices,
- return an error message on console when dimensions of the given matrices are not appropriate,
- ask the elements of the input matrices one by one.

Hint: Use static array for the input matrices whose maximum dimensions are 100x100.